Hmm... Got my gems but didn't get the skin? Interesteing.. I like the different skin for Aurora and the oculi helps to upgrade your gear faster.. The Dark Aurora skin gives Aurora white hair with a black\white dress. Please keep in mind Aurora will still keep her default skin during dialogues, but it works for the rest of the game. Also this skin "overwrites" a "skin transformation" Aurora goes through at the very end of the game, which might ruin the scene a little bit.

The stat boosts for Aurora are very nice. Aurora is the only Light-elemental spellcaster (which is your only source of Light magic). This boost makes her Magic on par with the typical "glass-cannon" spellcaster in the game. I've never played without this pack, but I would imagine her Magic stat would be mediocre without it. The defences are also a nice bonus.

The rough oculi are very insignificant. You'll easily get over 100+ of those in a single playthrough so 3V2V2 is almost nothing. But I guess it's better than nothing.

Conclusion:

Get it for the stat boosts (which I think is worth it for only \u20ac2 but it's not necessary to enjoy the game) or if you want the skin.. By far my favorite skin in the game! It adds to the whole glass cannon thing that Aurora already is. It helps you upgrade alot easier and it is very nice looking. Paired with the heal ability you get from buying the Light Aurora Pack and you get one badass girl who looks fabulous and is VERY strong. I love this and you should buy especially if its on sale!. Just a skin and some goodies, but I loved this game.. very nice game. I bought this long ago, it worked when I first played it for a while. I returned and it refused to load in.

Waste of my 2$

If you can't find the skins after reinstalling for example. They are in the game, you have to change her skin in the settings in the main menu. That is the only way to access them!. My headphones haven't worked since downloading this.
